Arzberg - Kitchen Friends food storage boxes

The fridge is now getting all tidy and dressed up. The Arzberg porcelain food storage boxes with lids in seven cheerful colors look much better than the usual plastic storage containers. And they are also convenient: the tight-fitting lid protects the food from loss of aroma and external odors. This keeps sausage and cheese fresh and cookies crispy. In addition, the Arzberg box is oven-safe and can also be placed in the microwave without a protective plastic lid. And if something is occasionally left over, food can be frozen in the box.

The everyday suitability of the beautiful kitchen helpers in four different sizes has also convinced the Eco-Test jury - Arzberg Frischeboxes have been carrying the Eco-Test seal of approval with the verdict "good" since 2011. Quality "Made in Germany" - from design to production.
