Hutschenreuther - Collector's Items Christmas 2022: Christmas Eve

It's dark outside, snowflakes float through the cold air and cover houses and trees with a glittering blanket of snow. Hutschenreuther presents the magic of Christmas Eve in the new 2022 collector's edition "Christmas Eve", telling a delightful story of Christmas joy in lovingly crafted illustrations by the Czech artist Renáta Fučíková on high-quality porcelain. A delicate colour décor on bell, ball, cone and boot depicts scenes in wintry nature as well as a cosy time at home with the family.

On cups and mugs as well as the new mini bells, stars and boots, a little boy plays a Christmas carol on his trumpet while his dog listens to him. A perfect ornament for the Christmas tree are also the fine star ornaments in three décor variations. This year, the much-loved star-shaped tray matches the décor and is again available in 24 and 34 cm, for both large and small Christmas treats.

The breakfast plates, mugs and cereal bowls with colourful motifs create a festive feeling at the breakfast table.

It's Christmas Eve! On the sets with delicate mini balls, bells, boots and star pendants as well as biscuit plates and biscuit tins in three sizes, children are filled with joy about their new presents.

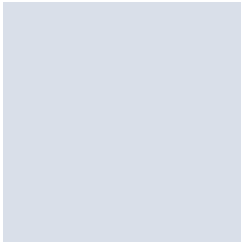

Slowly the snowflakes are also floating down in the new glass sphere with snow effect. The music box with the Christmas carol "Stille Nacht" (en: Silent night), which is available as a limited edition in three different sizes, completes this lovely Christmas edition and sets a festive mood for children and adults.

Renáta Fučíková (born 1964 in Prague) studied illustration at the Academy of Arts, Architecture and Design in Prague and currently teaches at the University of West Bohemia in Pilsen.
