New Pantone Colour of the Year 2025: Mocha Mousse Inspires Finest Tableware

The New Pantone Colour of the Year 2025: Mocha Mousse

The Pantone shade, Mocha Mousse, evokes a delicious sense of indulgence, conjuring images of nougat, dark chocolate soufflé, toffee, or a rich coffee creation. This deep, warm brown tone not only brings to mind culinary delights but also embodies the cozy appeal of cocooning and a laid-back luxury that engages all the senses. Despite its elegance, the shade retains a certain grounded quality, suggesting warmth and stability.

In interior design, this inviting hue blends seamlessly with materials such as wool fabrics, leather, and suede-like surfaces.

In tableware, deep brown tones are making waves, with stunning creations crafted from porcelain or stoneware. From the Thomas Clay Earth and Rust collections to the beloved Rosenthal Joyn and Junto lines, these designs are perfect examples of how Mocha Mousse-inspired trends can elevate dining aesthetics.

Rosenthal Joyn Spark Collection

The Joyn Spark collection exemplifies the fusion of traditional craftsmanship with modern design. Its earthy red tone, Spark, adds a vibrant splash of colour to the dining table. Celebrating the joy of communal experiences, this stoneware features coloured inner glazes and an artisan touch with its lightly textured exterior. It's an ideal backdrop for tapas and the "sharing is caring" dining philosophy.

Rosenthal Junto

Junto embodies the ethos of shared meals, culinary enjoyment, and celebrating life together. Known for its natural, handcrafted appearance, soft hues, and organic forms, this collection captivates food lovers globally. Alongside fine porcelain pieces, Junto also includes robust, earthy stoneware with reactive glazes, ideal for serving "sharing dishes." The result is a versatile, stylish platform for modern dining with a personal touch.

Thomas Clay Rust

Thomas's Clay Rust collection features vibrant red-brown stoneware reminiscent of brick and terracotta, merging a handmade aesthetic with contemporary industrial design. Its natural yet functional look makes it the perfect everyday dinnerware for various occasions.

Thomas Clay Earth

The warm, reddish-brown tones of Thomas Clay Earth echo the serene landscapes of Mediterranean hills. This calming ceramic colour adds a sense of comfort and harmony to any table setting, creating a welcoming atmosphere ideal for cozy, intimate dining moments.

From Porcelain Pioneer to International Design Company

Founded in 1879, Rosenthal reflects on its longstanding company history. The story of Rosenthal is the story of a father and son – founder Philipp Rosenthal Senior and the visionary entrepreneur Philip Rosenthal Junior. The former laid the foundation for modern porcelain production, while the latter built Rosenthal into a renowned international brand. His credo: a passion for everyday luxury and a heartfelt commitment to design. For well over a century, established designers, artists, and trendy newcomers have crafted elegant, high-quality tableware collections and exclusive pieces that enhance living spaces. Rosenthal's clientele includes not only households worldwide but also 800 international restaurants and hotels. Rosenthal is already on the path of green transformation and established the "Corporate Sustainability" unit in 2022. The company actively addresses sustainability in environmental and energy management and social responsibility. The Rosenthal portfolio features the Rosenthal, Hutschenreuther, and Thomas brands, along with collaborations such as Rosenthal meets Versace and Swarovski x Rosenthal. Since July 2009, Rosenthal has been part of the Italian Arcturus Group.
