Rosenthal - Freddo

Freddo vase objects – design: Daniel Debiasi/Federico Sandri

The Freddo vase collection emphasises the juxtaposition of fine porcelain and heavy, satin-finish block glass. It celebrates the timelessness of both materials and unites these to create design objects that exude the precision, coolness and elegance of art without compromising their functional aspect. The matte porcelain vases in white and black appear to float in a glass stand as if encased in a block of ice.

Daniel Debiasi (born 1981) and Federico Sandri (born 1977) are among the brightest and best young designers. In 2010, they opened offices in Bolzano and Verona. Since then, they have created interior collections, furniture and architectural objects for renowned clients such as Antoniolupi, Lema, Ligne Roset, Normann Copenhagen and Stelton. Their work is characterised in particular by the interaction of state-of-the-art production processes and skilled craftsmanship as well as a passion for experimenting with materials.

From Porcelain Pioneer to International Design Company

Founded in 1879, Rosenthal reflects on its longstanding company history. The story of Rosenthal is the story of a father and son – founder Philipp Rosenthal Senior and the visionary entrepreneur Philip Rosenthal Junior. The former laid the foundation for modern porcelain production, while the latter built Rosenthal into a renowned international brand. His credo: a passion for everyday luxury and a heartfelt commitment to design. For well over a century, established designers, artists, and trendy newcomers have crafted elegant, high-quality tableware collections and exclusive pieces that enhance living spaces. Rosenthal's clientele includes not only households worldwide but also 800 international restaurants and hotels. Rosenthal is already on the path of green transformation and established the "Corporate Sustainability" unit in 2022. The company actively addresses sustainability in environmental and energy management and social responsibility. The Rosenthal portfolio features the Rosenthal, Hutschenreuther, and Thomas brands, along with collaborations such as Rosenthal meets Versace and Swarovski x Rosenthal. Since July 2009, Rosenthal has been part of the Italian Arcturus Group.
