Rosenthal - Junto: Rose Quartz

As an individual contrast to the porcelain, the most important Junto products are also available in strong, earthy stoneware with a special reactive glaze that makes every plate look different.

Dark stoneware in Slate Grey and Bronze and light stoneware with Aquamarine and Alabaster glazes are joined 2021 by Rose Quartz - a fascinating and lively interplay of different shades of rosé in constantly new facets and shapes. Dark stoneware in Slate Grey and Bronze as well as light stoneware with Aquamarine and Alabaster glazes are joined by 2021 Rose Quartz - a fascinating and lively interplay of different shades of rosé in ever new facets and shapes. A tribute to Rose Quartz, which as a gemstone is intended mainly to strengthen the emotional side of the human being. On the table, Rose Quartz unfolds its power as a strong, natural tone, creating a harmony between the warm and cool nuances of the Junto collection.

From Porcelain Pioneer to International Design Company

Founded in 1879, Rosenthal reflects on its longstanding company history. The story of Rosenthal is the story of a father and son – founder Philipp Rosenthal Senior and the visionary entrepreneur Philip Rosenthal Junior. The former laid the foundation for modern porcelain production, while the latter built Rosenthal into a renowned international brand. His credo: a passion for everyday luxury and a heartfelt commitment to design. For well over a century, established designers, artists, and trendy newcomers have crafted elegant, high-quality tableware collections and exclusive pieces that enhance living spaces. Rosenthal's clientele includes not only households worldwide but also 800 international restaurants and hotels. Rosenthal is already on the path of green transformation and established the "Corporate Sustainability" unit in 2022. The company actively addresses sustainability in environmental and energy management and social responsibility. The Rosenthal portfolio features the Rosenthal, Hutschenreuther, and Thomas brands, along with collaborations such as Rosenthal meets Versace and Swarovski x Rosenthal. Since July 2009, Rosenthal has been part of the Italian Arcturus Group.
