Rosenthal meets Versace - Versace Jungle

Rosenthal meets Versace - Versace Jungle Collection

With its new gift collection Rosenthal meets Versace brings the iconic palm prints back on stage and pays tribute to the iconic Jungle print which was famously reprised on the Versace Spring-Summer 2020 runway.

Debuting in the Spring-Summer 2000 Collection, the Jungle print made history when Jennifer Lopez wore a dress boasting the design at the 2000 Grammy Awards. Millions of people took to the internet to see Jennifer in the legendary dress, making it one the most popular search queries for Google at the time - inspiring the creation of Google Images.

The vividly printed collection is crafted from the finest porcelain and features a service plate, bread plate, tray, vase, scented candle and ashtray. All pieces from this limited collection are enriched with a gold-tone border, Medusa accent and an intricate Barocco design.

From Porcelain Pioneer to International Design Company

Founded in 1879, Rosenthal reflects on its longstanding company history. The story of Rosenthal is the story of a father and son – founder Philipp Rosenthal Senior and the visionary entrepreneur Philip Rosenthal Junior. The former laid the foundation for modern porcelain production, while the latter built Rosenthal into a renowned international brand. His credo: a passion for everyday luxury and a heartfelt commitment to design. For well over a century, established designers, artists, and trendy newcomers have crafted elegant, high-quality tableware collections and exclusive pieces that enhance living spaces. Rosenthal's clientele includes not only households worldwide but also 800 international restaurants and hotels. Rosenthal is already on the path of green transformation and established the "Corporate Sustainability" unit in 2022. The company actively addresses sustainability in environmental and energy management and social responsibility. The Rosenthal portfolio features the Rosenthal, Hutschenreuther, and Thomas brands, along with collaborations such as Rosenthal meets Versace and Swarovski x Rosenthal. Since July 2009, Rosenthal has been part of the Italian Arcturus Group.
