Rosenthal - Stella

Rosenthal Stella tealight holders/design: Jule Witte

The striking faceted finish, alongside the elaborate interplay of geometric shapes including triangles, diamonds and hexagons, and the vibrant colour scheme of designer Jule Witte's new tealight holders turn these small accessories made of heavy block glass into real 'eye'-lights. The collection is available in gold, bordeaux, olive and smoke, and its hexagonal form makes it easy to combine into different patterns and shapes or stack to save space.

Berlin-based designer Jule Witte (*1974) studied industrial design at the Academy of Fine Art and Design in Saarbrücken and then began her career working at an architecture firm in Hamburg. She has been running her own design studio since 2007, designing household products, office accessories and lighting that is both functional and fanciful for brands such as WMF, Raumgestalt, Fackelmann and Muse Concepts.

From Porcelain Pioneer to International Design Company

Founded in 1879, Rosenthal reflects on its longstanding company history. The story of Rosenthal is the story of a father and son – founder Philipp Rosenthal Senior and the visionary entrepreneur Philip Rosenthal Junior. The former laid the foundation for modern porcelain production, while the latter built Rosenthal into a renowned international brand. His credo: a passion for everyday luxury and a heartfelt commitment to design. For well over a century, established designers, artists, and trendy newcomers have crafted elegant, high-quality tableware collections and exclusive pieces that enhance living spaces. Rosenthal's clientele includes not only households worldwide but also 800 international restaurants and hotels. Rosenthal is already on the path of green transformation and established the "Corporate Sustainability" unit in 2022. The company actively addresses sustainability in environmental and energy management and social responsibility. The Rosenthal portfolio features the Rosenthal, Hutschenreuther, and Thomas brands, along with collaborations such as Rosenthal meets Versace and Swarovski x Rosenthal. Since July 2009, Rosenthal has been part of the Italian Arcturus Group.
