2019 Thomas Colour Game sets in pastel and blue

Versatile and trend-conscious, the two new design variants from the Thomas Colour Game collection are enabling individualists and free spirits to express their creativity. The 18-piece sets each comprise six breakfast plates, six dinner plates and six soup dishes, and stand out with a casual colour and pattern mix. The matching mugs are available in a six-piece set that complements the two colour variations. As usual, the designs are dishwasher-safe, impact-resistant, scratch-proof and suitable for the micro-wave.

A flaming orange colour and a recurring pattern add vitality and dynamism to the pastel colour variation. In combination with the gently interwoven pink, turquoise and yellow tones, the composition appears balanced and harmonious. The pattern featured on the plate set also appears on the mugs. Not only are the soft pastel shades stylish, but they also create a pleasant atmosphere for the table.

Thomas Colour Game set in blue

The Thomas Colour Game set in blue is playfully botanical and incredibly detailed. The floral style of the design is inspired by plants and crystals. Accent colours of blue and green create a brilliant symphony of colour that blends modern patterns and a vintage touch in an unconventional way.
