From the runway to finest porcelain: Versace Jungle

With its new gift collection Rosenthal meets Versace brings the iconic palm prints back on stage and pays tribute to the iconic Jungle print which was famously reprised on the Versace Spring-Summer 2020 runway.

Debuting in the Spring-Summer 2000 Collection, the Jungle print made history when Jennifer Lopez wore a dress boasting the design at the 2000 Grammy Awards. Millions of people took to the internet to see Jennifer in the legendary dress, making it one the most popular search queries for Google at the time - inspiring the creation of Google Images.

The vividly printed collection is crafted from the finest porcelain and features a service plate, bread plate, tray, vase, scented candle and ashtray. All pieces from this limited collection are enriched with a gold-tone border, Medusa accent and an intricate Barocco design.

Rosenthal may have one of the longest traditions of Germany's companies, but is also one of the most modern. Just as we did when we were originally founded 140 years ago, Rosenthal develops products equally for discerning end customers and for exacting professional clients from the restaurant and hotel trade. Our products stand out with exceptional form, function, quality and craftsmanship and represent a cultural asset "made in Germany", never ceasing to combine innovation and creativity. With its award-winning porcelain design, trendy lifestyle collections and modern, elegant classics, the Rosenthal brand raises the bar time and again for aesthetics and individuality.

Established figures from the worlds of architecture, design and art, but also the hottest newcomers and talents design avant-garde dinner table collections, foster a joy of giving and create sophisticated furnishings. The collections are manufactured in the Rosenthal porcelain factory in Selb and the “Thomas am Kulm” porcelain factory in Speichersdorf, which offer some of the porcelain industry’s most advanced production facilities anywhere in the world and deliver sustainable manufacturing with careful use of resources thanks to the forward- looking investments that have been made.

New interior collections and accessories enrich the Rosenthal world by adding designer objects that go far beyond the limits of a conventional table setting and round off the huge product variety.
