Hello Summer: Happy colours and cheerful designs for a mood boost

Colour is life. Nothing brings us more happiness than the first warm rays of sunshine, fresh green and happy moments during the summer days with family or friends.

The cheerful colour palette by Thomas BeColour and Thomas Sunny Day, but also Arzberg Tric enhances the mood and brings up summer feeling. The useful Arzberg Kitchen Friends food storage boxes are perfect companions for a picknick in the open air.

Thomas BeColour

Colour me happy! Thomas relies on expressive bicolourism with its new collection: the more colourful life is, the better! Flowing and harmonious, BeColour changes from soft to strong nuances. The trendy Ombré look creates four new colour designs that suit every type of living. The BeColour shades celebrate the individuality of personality. The different colour combinations give the opportunity to reinvent oneself each at a time. All colors are part of the colorful Sunny Day world. The extensive color palette of the popular series thus leaves much space for a fun mix-and-match.

Thomas Sunny Day

Trendy colours can cheer up the sometimes dreary everyday lives. The beloved yellow coffee mug in the morning, a pastel blue cup for the office, a colourful mix & match for the kids birthday party or a festive green and red in the holiday season – colours are essential. That's why Thomas – with Sunny Day – puts a colourful programm on the table. The colours can easily be combined with each other and can create living spaces in the styles of the 60s or 80s or the retro-style.

Arzberg TRIC

TRIC by designer Michael Sieger is the ideal combination of style and quality without sacrificing functionality. Bright colors romp on the conical shape of the line and can be mixed sometimes more and sometimes less wild on the table. The collection with the retro touch is the perfect partner for every day, uncomplicated and flexible to use thanks to the practical separate pieces. TRIC combines special porcelain items with patented aroma lids that seal or cover bowls and jars aroma-tight. The special valve system can be easily removed for a thorough cleaning and put back together.

Arzberg Kitchen Friends food storage boxes

The fridge is now getting all tidy and dressed up. The Arzberg porcelain food storage boxes with lids in four cheerful colors look much better than the usual plastic storage containers. And they are also convenient: the tight-fitting lid protects the food from loss of aroma and external odors. This keeps sausage and cheese fresh and cookies crispy. In addition, the Arzberg box is oven-safe and can also be placed in the microwave without a protective plastic lid. And if something is occasionally left over, food can be frozen in the box.
