Porcelain meets trendy colours: Rosenthal in a pastel look

Whether soft pink, light blue or gentle pistachio green – a clear spring trend is emerging on international design fairs, in the streets and in the windows of high-end boutiques: pastels! These delicate shades evoke the look of creamy ice cream and are making their way into fashion, interiors and design. Rosenthal has curated a variety of collections that translate pastel tones into elegant porcelain creations.

The Rosenthal classic continues to enchant in three established pastel hues: Dream Blue, Pale Mint, and Pale Orchid – subtle tones that perfectly complement the timeless elegance of the design.

Rosenthal Kumi brings braided patterns in pastel

Kumi von Rosenthal is inspired by the art of craftsmanship: “Kumihimo”, a traditional Japanese technique of intricately braiding yarns, ribbons and cords, lends its name to the collection. The delicate porcelain creations are presented in the pastel shades White Tone, Blue Tone, Mint Tone and Rose Tone, which give the collection its own gentle yet vibrant character.
