Sparkling decorations for festive season - with Junto and TAC by Rosenthal

The festive season is all about giving and receiving gifts – and enjoying a traditional Christmas dinner surrounded by the entire family. A lovingly decorated dinner table is the splendid centerpiece of the Christmas festivities. It reflects our individual style as a host and our hopes that the meal will be an unforgettable moment for our guests for more than just culinary reasons.

With this in mind, Rosenthal has come up with two approaches to decorating the Christmas table this year: the relaxed, stylish look of the new Junto collection for the young and the young at heart, and the architectural straight lines and stylish elegance of the TAC series for design fans and aesthetes. Matching glassware from Rosenthal is a valuable addition that completes the table setting harmoniously.

The attractive Christmas sets from the Junto White and TAC White collections are presented in gift packaging with an all-around Christmas flower motif. Each set includes six bread plates, six starter plates, six dinner plates and six deep plates. The Junto set also includes six 14 cm bowls and a large 26 cm serving dish. Each set is accompanied by drinking glasses for six people that have been specially selected to complement the design of the respective tableware. The Junto series is combined with six diVino Burgunder Grand Cru and white wine glasses, while the TAC set is completed by six TAC champagne glasses.
