The finest porcelain for a festive table

Summer is coming to an end and soon it will be cosy at home again. The time for families and friends begins: time for beautiful moments together. There is a smell of pastries and freshly brewed tea, rooms are festively decorated and tables are set for feasts.

For this quiet time, Rosenthal has once again launched a variety of designs for elegant tables as well as lovely gift ideas.

Timeless design with gold elements: TAC Festive Celebration

A legendary design and one of Rosenthal's successful models, the TAC service by Walter Gropius, is getting a new festive décor in 2023. Decorative ornaments in noble gold allude to classic Rosenthal décors of past decades and adorn the strictly geometric Bauhaus designs, underlining their reduced formal language. The iconic design looks stylishly elegant, while the decorative variations such as trees and stars in four different styles, which are solely featured on small plates, make the porcelain look particularly sublime. The delicate festive decorations on plates and cups as well as on the porcelain table light make a good figure on the festively set table, alone or together, but also go well with the new powdery TAC Sensual shades Gentle Grey and Comfort Blue. Together they form a harmonious decorative arrangement with the timeless Bauhaus classic TAC, combining various gold ornaments, poetic motifs and tactile as well as visual highlights. They are not only appropriate for Christmas, but also for any other festive event.

The collection is available from autumn 2023 in selected stores and online at www.rosenthal.de.

Gift tip: Christmas Angels

The much-loved Rosenthal angels, made of the finest biscuit porcelain, are being expanded with new motifs, but also new decorative ideas such as candle holders and porcelain pendants. The lovely decorative items show the new angels with painter's palette, Bambi and a flower wreath as usual in three different sizes and make hearts sway as pretty gift ideas or collector's items. The delightful candle holders of the new series depict the angels sitting, with a heart and a wreath of flowers - they have space for a tea light and are available in medium size. As delicate porcelain pendants, the new angels are available in six motifs: with lyre, a bell and a heart, but also with Bambi, a wreath of flowers and a colour palette. All the angels have the Rosenthal bottom stamp and are offered for sale in high-quality gift packaging.

The new series is available from June 2023 in selected stores and online at www.rosenthal.de
