

The gold-plated Medusa head from Rosenthal meets Versace

Jul 03, 2024 09:00 BST

The Golden Medusa: Rosenthal meets Versace launches limited edition floor vase

Rosenthal meets Versace launches a limited-edition golden Medusa vase. The Italian fashion house and premium porcelain manufacturer have collaborated to launch a limited-edition collection of the opulent 'Medusa Grande Gold' floor vase.

The exclusive design features a lavish, shiny gold finish meticulously spray-painted, featuring the iconic Medusa head in high-quality, 24-carat 999 fine gold plating and stands at around 66 cm high, 76 cm long and 48 cm deep.

Only 30 limited edition floor vases will be produced by Rosenthal worldwide using the finest and most elaborate craftsmanship.

The limited-edition vases are the crowning glory of the 30th anniversary that Rosenthal meets Versace celebrated last year.

Each vase weighs an impressive 23.5 kilogram and costs €19,000 retail price (RRP)

Rosenthal - From Porcelain Pioneer to International Design Company

Founded in 1879, Rosenthal celebrates 145 years of company history this year. The story of Rosenthal is the story of a father and son – founder Philipp Rosenthal Senior and the visionary entrepreneur Philip Rosenthal Junior. The former laid the foundation for a modern porcelain production at the time, while the latter built Rosenthal into a renowned international brand. His credo: a passion for everyday luxury and a heartfelt commitment to design. For 145 years, established designers, artists, and trendy newcomers have been creating elegant tableware collections as well as exclusive objects. The Rosenthal portfolio includes the brands Rosenthal, Hutschenreuther, and Thomas, along with brand collaborations such as Rosenthal meets Versace and Swarovski x Rosenthal. Since July 2009, the company has been part of the Italian Arcturus Group.

About Rosenthal meets Versace

The year 1992 marks the start of the congenial collaboration between Versace and Rosenthal. A connection in which two strong brands come together to create something extraordinary. Under the direction of Gianni Versace, Rosenthal meets Versace made its debut in 1993 with the first ‘Medusa’ collection. Today, the inimitable and extravagant designs are in the hands of Donatella Versace. Rosenthal meets Versace translates her fashion creations into unique tableware collections. Over the course of many years of collaboration, numerous fine porcelain collections have been created, which have been refined with the most famous and beautiful Versace motifs and prints.

Contacts

Barbara Stockinger-Torelli

Press Contact

Pr Manager

barbara.stockinger-torelli@rosenthal.de

+49 170 413 8510