The Joy of Crystal: Stylish designs that highlight the power of crystal

Rosenthal meets Versace - Medusa Grande Crystal

Rosenthal meets Versace extends the popular Medusa Grande Collection in 2022 with a new design. After the introduction of the transparent glass vase, the series is bolstered by three further colour variants in pink, blue and black. The colours match the tones of the new Medusa Amplified collection and can be combined with the Medusa Amplified Short Sets.

Rosenthal meets Versace - Medusa Lumière Mint & Teal

The iconic Versace Home Collection line, Medusa Lumière, is refreshed in two delicate tones – teal and mint. The elegance of the crystal is emphasized by sleek lines of the water and wine glasses, while the recognizable Medusa accent is complemented with the soft, pastel color palette.

Rosenthal - Junto Rose Quartz

A Junto stoneware series Rose Quartz is a fascinating and lively interplay of different shades of rosé in ever new facets and shapes. On the table, it unfolds its power as a strong, natural tone, creating a harmony between the warm and cool nuances of the Junto collection.

Swarovski x Rosenthal - Signum

With the Signum collection Swarovski is introducing its brand pattern for the very first time and translates the brand's octagonal motif on the Rosenthal porcelain. Inspired by the 19th century Austrian art movement, with its modern approach towards arts and craftsmanship, the collection is colorful yet sophisticated with a retro futuristic vibe. Rosenthal's extreme attention to detail and in-depth knowledge of their craft results in a range that is as artistic as it is usable. The German company, who stands alone for their award-winning designs, has interpreted this new entry point into the crystal lifestyle in a vibrant selection of moreish candy colors.

Just as the octagon, the Swarovski brand colors of blue, green, yellow, and pink are captured in graphic designs, edged with golden accents (per Rosenthal) – another detail that links to Swarovski's heritage and craftsmanship in designing and creating jewelry. The stylish swan-engraved, cut-crystal lids are a feature of the collection and add an extra dose of luxury to an already enchanting range, as do the center stamps featuring a golden Swarovski Swan.

From forms to printing to the application of delicate and hand painted décor details, each is a representation of Rosenthal's craftsmanship and expertise.
