The Rosenthal Novelties: The Best of 2021

Original designs, produced under sustainable conditions - The Best of 2021 - are presented by Rosenthal in the selected new tableware and gift collections of the brands Rosenthal and Rosenthal meets Versace along with Thomas and Hutschenreuther.

"Sixty & Twelve" anniversary collection: 60 years of Rosenthal studio-line

To mark the 60th anniversary of studio-line, Rosenthal is introducing a limited anniversary collection with 60 iconic vases in 12 different colours. The vase objects are made from through-dyed porcelain according to the company's own recipe and demonstrate the expertise and manufacturing art of the Rosenthal craftsmen who created each of the vases from scratch. The shapes are as varied as the colours: they range from pure, architectural volumes to lush, floral objects.

A special highlight in the collection is the anniversary vase Hop by Sebastian Herkner. The vase stands out with asymmetrically layered rings, which remind of Michelin men or sculptures by Tony Cragg. As a collector's item in the anniversary edition the vase is available in cameo colour.

Far, Far, Closer/Design: Morgann Lechat

With "Far, Far, Closer" Morgann Lechat captures an intimate journey into a world unknown and yet so close to us. The sensitive and at the same time insistent motifs are space-spanning, they do not restrict themselves by formal boundaries, but cross them and reconnect beyond them - and tell, with hands and faces, their stories of the need for touch and closeness, to ourselves and others.

Medusa Grande by Rosenthal meets Versace

The popular Medusa Grande collection is being expanded. The vases in two new sizes and in the colour fuchsia, as well as crystal vase, scented candles and floor vases in white, black and gold complete the design assortment and set stylish accents in the interior.

Thomas Clay - Earth, Sky and Rock

In the new Thomas Clay collection the colour tones Earth, Sky and Rock exude rustic sensuality and harmonise perfectly with each other. The collection impresses with its functionality and the naturalness of the stoneware material, which almost looks like clay here. The grooved structure and the black speckles in the material give the plates and cups an authentic character in a handmade look and bring nature to the table in a trend-conscious and stylish way.

Collector's Items 2021 - "Christmas Gifts" by Hutschenreuther

A winter fairy tale made of high quality porcelain with great attention to detail and delicacy designed by artist Renáta Fučíková - Hutschenreuther presents "Christmas gifts" the new collector's items 2021. With a fine colour décor adorning bell, ball, cone and boots made of fine porcelain, the Czech artist invites you to give joy not only to your family and friends but also to the birds and animals in nature.
